Dr. K. Selvam, IMA Kodambakkam : We are going away from the Constitution by not nominating the Finance Secretary from the local branch.

Dr. S. Kanagasabhapathy, Past State President : We are diverting from the constitution. For example, the Treasurer of FSS and the FSS Secretary was in different places, where the Treasurer could not visit the FSS office often and verify the accounts, lead to misappropriation of fund. Hence, it is important that the Finance Secretary is from the local branch, or else, he must visit the State office thrice in a week.

Dr. L. Chittibabu, Past FSS Secretary : He must be accessible to the office.

Dr. T. SenthamilPari, State President Elect 2022: As the State Secretary Elect has not got any suitable candidate from his own branch for the post of State Finance Secretary, he chose Dr. V.N. Alagavenkatesan from Madurai branch.

Dr. C.N. Raja, Past State President : The role of Finance Secretary is important in the day to day accounting. There are many candidates from Mullai Periyar branch, it is best if he is selecting someone from the local branch, it is good for the organisation.

Dr. Capt. G. Raghavelu, Past State President : Finance Secretary is the ultimate authority and have lot of responsibilities. We should not deviate from the constitution. Once it happened last time, why not this time?

Dr. C.N. Raja, Past State President : State Secretary Elect can nominate anybody from the Cumbum Valley.

Dr. S. Kanagasabhapathy, Past State President : The proposed Finance Secretary must visit State Office 3 days in a week and sign, or else to be chosen from the local branch.

Dr. N.R.T.R. Thiagarajan, Hony. State Secretary Elect : Constitution allows the State Finance Secretary from the local branch or from the neighbouring branch. As he is in Madurai, he can come to office thrice in a week, it is my responsibility.

Dr. R. Palaniswamy, State President Elect : Dr. V.N. Alagavenkatesan is nominated as the State Finance Secretary, as most of the members are in favour of him.
